

News Alert for Mobilehome Park Owners

May 27, 2009

Gilchrist & Rutter is pleased to announce that well-known Park owner James Goldstein was successful last night in obtaining approval of the subdivision/conversion of his Park in Rohnert Park, CA.

The Rohnert Park City Council voted 3-2 to approve the subdivision in spite of opposition from residents from other Parks in the City.

The City Council had previously denied the conversion of the 300-space Rancho Verde Mobile Home Park.

However, the City came to realize that approval was necessary and there would be many benefits and opportunities for the Park residents.

Please forward this email to friends, family, and acquaintances who may be interested in learning about this victory. If you have any questions, please call Susy Forbath in our office at (310) 393-4000.